CORPORATION FOR AGING

2022 – 2023

Agency Training Catalog

INTRODUCTION

The training & development opportunities listed in this catalog are offered to enhance the professional development of all PCA and Aging Network staff. While many programs are suitable for everyone, some of the sessions are targeted for particular staff groups and some have specific requirements – so please read the descriptions carefully before registering for a session or series.

Managers and supervisors, adapting to new remote and hybrid work situations, will benefit greatly from attending Coaching and Mentoring, Team Building for Managers and/or Women in Leadership.

Situational Leadership[®] provides formal and informal leaders with tools to recognize the readiness level of staff to perform specific job tasks and select the leadership style most appropriate to successfully coach that individual to perform those tasks.

Staff who wish to increase their Microsoft Office skills should look at Microsoft EXCEL – offered at three experience levels – Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced.

Any staff member new to the Aging field would gain significant grounding by attending Foundations in Gerontology, Our Assumptions about Older People or Working Effectively with Participants: Understanding Behavior and Techniques for Intervention. These sessions also offer CEUs.

For those seasoned staff looking for a more in-depth understanding of behavioral health issues that can be associated with aging, the Behavioral Health & Aging Certificate Program is a significant commitment in time that yields an equally significant understanding of the subject. This program also offers CEUs.

Service Coordinators have a state requirement to participate in 20 hours of training annually. Several programs that are appropriate for all staff also fit the topic areas the state has identified. De-Escalation and Conflict Mastery, Working Effectively with Participants: Understanding Behaviors and Organizational Skills will all contribute toward the 20-hour requirement and provide valuable job and life skills.

The workplace, either in-person or hybrid, is one of the leading locations where people experience stress and anxiety. Everyone should be aware of the signs of stress and the tools needed to cope and deal with it. Stress Management will supply the tools you need.

Supervisors, please discuss developmental opportunities with you staff and encourage them to take advantage of these learning opportunities that can enhance current skill sets and offer additional ways to interact effectively with co-workers, consumers, participants, community members and families.

Should you be unable to attend a session for which you have been confirmed, please return to the registration site, log in with your password, and cancel that particular session.

In the event of a cancellation due to trainer illness or any other reason, an e-mail message will be sent to the address you listed on your registration. Please be sure this is an active address that you monitor daily.

Online Registration Instructions

To register for any of the programs or series in this catalog, first discuss your developmental needs and preferences with your immediate supervisor and get their approval to attend. Once you have been approved, proceed with online registration.

1. Access the online registration site at:

<https://pca-training-catalog-2022-2023.coursestorm.com/>

2. Once you enter the site, click on "Browse all classes". You will not enter any personal information until after you have selected all your sessions.
3. Select the first session you wish to attend by clicking on the session title – you will then be presented with the dates for all scheduled sessions for that topic. Click on the Register button for the date you wish to attend.
4. You will be asked "Who will be attending?" Click on the head icon labeled "You", then "continue".
5. That brings up a choice of "continue browsing" OR "check out". Unless you are only selecting one class, choose continue browsing and then "Browse Classes" in the menu bar at the top. This will take you back to the class listings. Choose your next selection and continue to repeat steps 4 and 5 until you have finished choosing sessions – you will be selecting ADD to CART for each selection after your initial one. After you have selected the last class you wish to register to attend, select "Check out" to enter your personal information.
6. Enter your e-mail address and click the continue button.
7. Fill in the rest of your personal information to finish your registration. Please choose a password that is easy to remember and write it down somewhere. You will need the password to return to your account to make any additions or deletions.
8. You will receive a confirmation e-mail shortly after you complete the process. Please be sure to PLACE ALL DATES FOR ALL PROGRAMS INTO YOUR CALENDAR

Behavioral Health & Aging Certificate Program

Overview

The Program requires participants to complete 48 hours of classroom training (16 half-day sessions) and five written work projects. The curriculum tries to balance theoretical and applied considerations, emphasizing state-of-the-art understandings of the current geriatric behavioral health literature as well as best clinical practices. Major topical areas include:

- an overview of the aging process, with particular focus on the behavioral health implications of aging
- a survey of behavioral illness in late life, including schizophrenia, anxiety disorders and depression
- consideration of alcohol abuse and dementia in older adults

The curriculum also includes:

- case analysis
- material on negotiating systems, ethics and the role of advocacy
- a new section on behavioral health under managed care which examines the changing context of current behavioral health
- a short unit on complementary or alternative approaches to health and behavioral health.

To date, 500+ participants from a variety of agencies have completed the program. The full 48 hour program will be offered once this year. Participants have up to 2 years or 2 program cycles to complete coursework for the full Certificate Program. Three CEUs will be awarded for each of the sixteen sessions.

Who Should Attend: Staff of the behavioral health system and the aging system are the primary audiences the program was created to engage all staff serving older persons with behavioral health needs beyond these systems will also benefit from this comprehensive focus on the behavioral health issues of aging adults.

Program Faculty:

Maureen Gibney, PsyD, who has served as a neuropsychologist, teacher, and trainer, covers the opening half of the curriculum. Faculty – Drexel University, Department of Psychology and Brian Sciences

Nancy Morrow, MSW, draws on more than 35 years of experience in a variety of roles in community-based long-term care and geriatric behavioral health. She provides training and consultation services in aging and teaches in the MSW program at the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Policy and Practice. Nancy facilitates the applied aspects of the Program's later sections.

Marian Mullahy, MSS, University of Pennsylvania's Center for Mental Health Policy and Services Research cover the alcoholism and managed behavioral health units.

COACHING AND MENTORING

Managers and Supervisors are responsible for getting work done through others. Each team and department's productivity leads to the overall success of the Agency. Two of the most critical skills in a leader's toolbox are Coaching and Mentoring.

Coaching & Mentoring focuses on how to better guide your staff to higher performance. Coaching is a process of relationship building and setting goals. How well you coach is related directly to how well you are able to foster a great working relationship with you staff through understanding their current skill levels and strategically setting goals that help them continue to develop and fine-tune those skills.

After participating in this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Explain why coaching and mentoring skills are important
- Understand how to measure each staff member's current performance
- Identify key methods for establishing an effective working relationship with each person on your team
- Adopt effective goal-setting techniques to guide performance

DE-ESCALATION & CONFLICT MASTERY

Conflict is something present in all our lives. Conflicts may occur big and small, in our personal or professional lives, and for multiple reasons. Whatever the reasons, one thing is true and constant: Knowing how to resolve conflicts before they escalate is crucial.

Everyday challenges and distractions can build incrementally forcing a serious escalation. This course will help you recognize key pre-escalation red flags and give you healthy strategies to minimize escalations.

Not only is this a conflict resolution course, in many ways it is also a social skills course in general, which means you will be able to transplant many of the techniques from this context to other areas of life (relationships, family, friends, and others).

After this workshop, you'll be able to:

- Effectively address and de-escalate conflicts, using appropriate techniques to deal with the person's emotions or complaints
- Properly analyze people's rules and how to avoid breaking them, avoiding future conflicts
- Mediate intense situations between third parties, evaluating both positions impartially
- Avoid the common escalation traps in conflicts

OUR ASSUMPTIONS ABOUT OLDER PEOPLE

Betty Friedan in her book, The Fountain of Age, notes that since life expectancy is nearly 80, we now can expect to live 1/3 to 1/2 our life after raising a family. She asks why we are not looking at age as a new, evolving stage of life --- not as decline from youth.

This full-day training will offer participants the opportunity to examine both personal and societal conceptions of aging in an exciting and experiential way. Unexamined assumptions can lead to erroneous conclusions about older people in many ways: their abilities, interests, physical well-being and mental health. Most of us are not fully aware of what we believe about aging yet what we believe shapes how we feel about, think of and relate to older people. It also influences how we understand and experience our own aging.

Drawing on her background in gerontology, creative drama and teaching, Dr. M. Kathryn Jedrziwski has designed an engaging workshop which facilitates exploration of assumptions about older people. Through "hands-on" learning, role-plays, complex case studies, group discussions, and problem solving, Dr. Jedrziwski will help participants gain new appreciation of the potentials and complexity of aging as well as of the vitality and diversity of older people.

Trainer: Dr. M. Kathryn Jedrziwski

Situational Leadership® - Building Leaders

For years, and years, and years the debate has gone on about just what leadership style was the most effective. There were as many theories as there were theorists, and the debate raged on. The answer: stop thinking of leadership as a theory and think of it as a process.

In the early 1960s, Dr. Paul Hersey developed his model for effective leadership. The Situational Leadership® Model is the most widely used leadership model in the world today. Over the last four decades, this model has become the basis of the most prevalent leadership system in over 700 of the Fortune 1000 companies. Having served as the common performance language, the benefit for organizations is enhanced goal and role clarity based on more frequent and more effective conversations about performance.

A situational leader does not adhere to a certain theory or trait. Instead, he or she identifies the readiness level of the individual performing a specific task and adapts his or her leadership behaviors to maximize that individual's chance to be successful. Situational Leadership® is not a theory; it's a Model used by leaders to be more successful.

Participants in this full day workshop will:

- Identify their own preferred style of leadership, as well as back-up styles
- Learn to assess the readiness level of staff to successfully complete specific tasks
- Understand how effective leaders match their leadership style to the readiness level of others

After completing of this workshop, participants will possess a working knowledge of Situational Leadership®. They will have learned how it can increase their effectiveness as a leader and as a person at work, at home, and in any other organizational setting.

WORKING EFFECTIVELY WITH PARTICIPANTS: Understanding Behavior and Techniques for Intervention

Despite provider empathy and good intentions, not all older persons are responsive in the service interaction. This training will help participants identify, understand and respond more effectively to consumers who exhibit challenging behaviors.

This course will help participants understand that behavior has meaning and as service providers we must understand the importance of identifying what is underlying the behavior in order to effectively work with the individual. The interactive training is based on a behavioral approach and reinforces learning with case review from participants' practice as well as training case examples/videos.

PLEASE NOTE: This is a three-part series of half-day sessions. To receive the 9 CEUs available, you must attend all three sessions in the series.

In this series of three sessions, you will:

- a) Examine a variety of problematic behaviors encountered in older consumers: the resistant consumer, the angry consumer, the paranoid and passive consumer
- b) Outline practical strategies for dealing with such behaviors and consider how these behaviors relate to important behavioral health diagnoses and conditions
- c) Understand the implications of your personal style and issues in dealing with difficult consumer behaviors.

Trainer: Nancy Morrow draws on more than 35 years of experience in a variety of roles in community-based long-term care and geriatric behavioral health.
